VERY REV. WILLIAM J. MURPHY, S.J.

The War Fund is now moving towards its climax and a goal of $250,000.00 has been set for the end of June. Since $115,000.00 has already been donated by the Alumni and friends, our direct goal is $135,000.00. The appeal is now being carried before a much wider circle, and it is expected that a great part of the required money will be given by public-spirited people who are not directly connected with the college.

We still hope and expect that the Alumni total will aid substantially towards the goal. Up to the present time about twenty percent of the Alumni have contributed, and the sum of their contributions is impressively generous. To them we can never be sufficiently grateful for their prompt and ready response. They are indeed The Alumni.

Needless to say we have been puzzled by the low response of the others. You will remember the Gospel story of the one out of ten who returned thanks, and the Master's query "Where are the nine?" We are asking, where are the eight? Some, certainly, are in the service, but the interest and the assistance of the man in service has been far beyond expectations. It has been one of the brightest features in the campaign.

In the beginning I was optimistic enough to hope that nine out of every ten alumni would be eager to do their bit. It would be more encouraging for us to receive many small contributions from a very large number than to receive larger contribution from a small number.

We want to hear from you, every last one. If your donation can only be a modest one, send it in. If your answer can only be a letter of regret, we will be happy to receive that. We do not want to be forced to the conviction that so many have lost faith in what is most certainly a cause Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam.

WILLIAM CARDINAL O'CONNELL
Class of 1881
1859-1944

To the Memory
 Of the Late Shepherd of the Flock
 The Most Eminent
 William Henry O'Connell
 Archbishop of Boston
 Cardinal Priest of the Holy Roman Church
 The President, Jesuit Community

 of Boston College
 Pay their most humble tribute of Praise and Veneration
 His was a splendid career
 Splendid in eloquence
 Splendid in scholarship and literary achievement
 Splendid in Hymnology and musical composition
 Splendid in business and financial acumen

And even more splendid
 In supernatural gifts of charity
 In unflagging devotion
 To the cause of Catholic education
 In Fatherliness to his flock lay and clerical
 To the poor and lowly
 To the numerous religious
 Devout men and saintly women
 Who under his benign and fostering care
 Have increased so marvelously
 And Pre-eminent
 In zeal and generosity for foreign missions
 Truly may it be said of him
 Behold a great priest
 Who in his days pleased God.

BISHOP CUSHING

Did you know that you owe reverence, respect, and obedience, in matters spiritual, to a B. C. alumnus? You should have known, of course; for all the papers carried the news that the consultors of the archdiocese of Boston, after the death of Cardinal O'Connell, had selected Bishop Richard J. Cushing to the office of administrator.

Cardinal O'Connell belonged to the class of 1881. For forty years he filled, most successfully and impressively, the post of Archbishop of Boston. To him belongs great credit for the growing recognition of Catholicism in the stronghold of the bean and the cod. After a long and full life, he was called to his reward; and his successor is an alumnus of the class of 1917. Boston College very properly claimed some share in the formation of the character of Cardinal O'Connell; she also claims, and proudly, a share in the making of the present Administrator.

Bishop Cushing was born in South Boston, on Aug. 24, 1895. Like most of the students of his day, he followed a regular preparatory course in parochial and public schools, and came to Boston College, as a freshman, in 1913,—the first freshman class to enter the new Tower building on the Heights.

Classmates recall him as a tall thin lad, with steady and piercing eye; clear-headed and intelligent; more than sufficiently occupied by the — at that time usual — combination of studies and work on the side. His chief power, as noted by his contemporaries, was oratorical; and already having more than his share of mature viewpoint, he used it in the political campaigns of the day; taking a full part in the hit-as-hit-can and rough-and-ready give and take of the hustings, in the days before radio and big advertising.

All this was left behind in 1915. He applied to St. John's Seminary as a candidate for the priesthood, and after six years of study was ordained on May 26, 1921.

Bishop Cushing's first assignment was to the parish of St. Patrick's in Roxbury; his second to St. Benedict's in Somerville. Father Cushing was an immediate success. His ringing voice, in public utterances, marked him as an orator by birth. His quiet, generous, self-effacing modesty in personal contacts made him easy to approach, while his zeal and intensity made sure that the carrying out of any plans or projects would be successful and thorough. Then as today, he was generous with others, but severe and strict with himself. He gave his all to others, and neither asked nor took anything in return.

From parochial work, Father Cushing was soon called to a specialized field. The Boston office of the Propagation of the Faith, under Monsignor McGlinchey, (B. C. '02) was world-famed. Because of his success as a curate, and because also of his intense personal interest in the missions, Father Cushing was called to act as assistant to Monsignor McGlinchey, in 1922.

The years that followed, until 1928, are marked in no public records. Father Cushing was ever lowly, trustworthy. Never did he seek to rival his appointed superior. But in 1928, when Monsignor McGlinchey retired from his office as Director, Father Cushing was trained and ready to take his place. He was appointed as Diocesan Director of the Propagation of the Faith Society. And from then until the present, this has been his life's work. Without publicity or formal campaign, without any personal advertisement of himself he made known to ever larger groups the needs of the missionary church. And just because the subject was portrayed so honestly and sincerely, Boston gave ever more generous support. More and more was subscribed. More and more, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Boston took over responsibility for the support of priests and sisters in Africa, Asia, the Pacific islands, among the Esquimaux, and wherever there was need. No wonder, then, that when Cardinal Pacelli, Secretary of State to the then Pope Pius XI, came to Boston, the one man that he wished to meet, on the basis of his record in Rome, was Father Cushing.

The rest is soon told. Monsignor Cushing was proclaimed as the Pope's selection as Auxiliary to the See of Boston in 1939. He was consecrated Bishop in the Cathedral, Boston, on June 29th of that year, and since that time served faithfully as an assistant to the aging Cardinal O'Connell, at the same time keeping up, with undiminished fervor, his cherished work for the missions.

And now, on the death of the Cardinal, he has been elected to be the temporary Administrator of the Archdiocese, until the appointment of the next Archbishop.

He is the best type of B.C. alumnus, a credit to his college training, and himself eager to help others to the same training. B. C. is honored by the honors that have been paid to him; and the alumni of B. C. will ever be proud to number him among those who have done most to show that B. C. is a college which prepares real men for the real world of real achievement.

WAR FUND

In February the President of the College, Very Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., revealed to the Alumni that Boston College's very existence was threatened by the loss of thousands of students who had entered the service, and called upon the Alumni for assistance.

Jeremiah W. Mahoney, '21, was appointed chairman of the present War Fund, and on the next page will be found his financial report to May 26. Father Rector and Mr. Mahoney are deeply grateful to the 1590 Alumni who have responded to the urgent call of the College. From all over the world they have sent in contributions expressing dismay and concern that Boston College might have to close until the war is over. Gratitude is also expressed to the class representatives who have made many personal sacrifices of time and effort to insure the success of the drive.

But, thousands of Alumni have not responded. Thousands. Perhaps the seriousness of the situation is not fully realized. The principal source of income for Boston College is derived from students' tuitions. In a normal year about 1700 attend classes. Today there are 250. In March the last of the soldiers in the A.S.T.P. left. Hopes that the seventeen year old Army Group will replace them are fast fading. The College authorities have effected certain economies reflected in the drastic reduction in faculty members. Several of the Jesuit Fathers have been transferred, while only about ten lay professors remain.

Boston College could close. It would be the easiest solution to the problem. But Boston College has an obligation to the students now enrolled, and to the students who will enroll. It must be ready when the war is over to continue educating youth. Any hiatus at the present time would delay for years this all important work.

The goal is $250,000. $114,000 have been raised. To you who have not contributed, please consider the problem your personal responsibility. Anyone entertaining the idea that all responsibility ended upon payment of tuition is in error, for that person forgets that tuitions at Boston College were and are ridiculously low because the Jesuits have labored without salary. Can anyone deny that Boston College has not given him a fuller life? Make a personal sacrifice, remembering that the history of Boston College has been one of sacrifice ever since its inception. How much? That is up to yourself. You know best. But give, send in something so that you will have the satisfaction of saying that you helped Boston College when it needed help.

HAVE YOU CONTRIBUTED?

FACULTY DEATHS

Rev. Walter J. McGuinn, S.J., Dean of the School of Social Work, died April 1. A Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul by his brother, Rev. Albert F. McGuinn, S.J., head of the department of Chemistry.

Father McGuinn entered the Society of Jesus in 1919. In 1936 the School of Social Work was opened and he was chosen as Dean, in which capacity he served until his death.

Rev. Paul de Mangeleere, S.J., Professor of French in the department of Romance Languages, died April 5, and a Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated April 10 by Very Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., the President of the College.

Father de Mangeleere was born in Belgium, going when a young man to Canada where he entered the Society of Jesus.

Within two months four esteemed members have thus passed away, remembering that in February Rev. Francis J. Dore, S.J., and Rev. Frederick W. Boehm, S.J., died.

A.S.T.P. ENDS

In July, 1943, the Army moved into St. Mary's Hall, under the command of Major John F. Canavan, thus inaugurating at the Heights the Army Specialized Training Program. In March 1944, the program suddenly terminated, and the soldiers hastily left for camps in all parts of the country.

Boston College has been happy in helping the war effort through the services of its faculty and use of its facilities. That much goodwill was accomplished is indicated by the intention of many of the soldiers to return to B. C. after the war, and by many letters of appreciation received from their parents by Dean Mulcahy.

ALUMNI RETREAT

Over the weekend of June 9-11 the graduates are invited to attend a retreat at Campion Hall, North Andover, given by the faculty moderator of the Alumni Association, Rev. Francis E. Low, S.J.

The members of the class of 1919, will attend in a body observing their twenty-fifth anniversary. Because of limited facilities, please make early reservations either with Father McGrory at Campion Hall or with the Alumni office.

1879-1914 DINNER

The annual dinner for the classes 1879-1914 scheduled for April 25 at the Hotel Kenmore was cancelled by the chairman, William F. Mack, '10, because of the death of William Cardinal O'Connell.

(The following story was written by Sergeant Gordon D. Marston, 16 Congress Street, Stoneham, Mass., a Marine Corps Combat Correspondent.)

Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific — (Delayed) — Located in the heart of the Southwest Pacific on a picturesque island—one of the few that rate that descriptive phrase—is "McLaughlin Grove" named in honor of Navy Lieutenant (j.g.) Joseph D. McLaughlin, former Boston College baseball star, who was killed in action while aboard a PT boat.

That Lieutenant McLaughlin enjoyed the highest respect of his fellow fighting men is shown in a statement given this correspondent by Lieutenant Commander Robert B. Kelly, U.S.N., of Bataan "Expendable" fame.

"He was one of our best PT officers," said the Lieutenant commander. "Lieutenant McLaughlin was in at least 24 engagements involving Japanese destroyers and barges in the New Georgia and other campaigns.

"He was not one to be idle, and when tough assignments came, Lieutenant McLaughlin begged to be put into action over some of the men who were married and had families.

"Unquestionably he was one of the most popular officers we have ever had. Now we have named this beautiful grove in honor of Lieutenant McLaughlin.

Lieutenant McLaughlin had been in the South Pacific for several months and was following the Japs up the Solomon ladder into the Southwest Pacific area when he was instantly killed in mid-November.

In the New Georgia campaign, he commanded a PT boat that sank several Japanese barges during their island-to-island retreats. As new PT bases were established to cut down the operating range, he and his crew moved to stay right on the heels of the Japs attempting sea-borne evacuations.

Today in the center of the grove on this island hangs a large sign beaming the words, "McLaughlin Grove." A smaller sign attached to the main one reads:

Named In Honor Of

Lt. (JG) Joseph D. McLaughlin

Killed in Action, Nov. 14, 1943.

Lt. (j.g.) McLaughlin was a member of the class of 1941.

Address to graduates
by

Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, D.D.

U. S. S. SHEA

On May 20 the 2200 ton destroyer, the U.S.S. Shea, named after Commander John J. Shea, '18, was launched at the Bethlehem Steel yard, Staten Island, New York. Mrs. Shea, who was accompanied by her son Jackie, sponsored the warship. Commander Shea has also been awarded posthumously the Navy Cross for heroic action during the sinking of the aircraft carrier Wasp in September, 1942.

Congratulations to Dr. Lawrence J. McCarthy, '23, the second Boston College graduate to attain the rank of captain in the Navy. The only other alumnus to attain this honor is Captain Clarence Pike, '18.

The following is a complete summary of the men in the service since February.

DECEASED

Joseph W. Moulton, Bus. 1944, Air Cadet, Army. Killed in an airplane accident, February 29, at Camp Grider, Arkansas.

MISSING

William J. Meehan, 1939, Lt., USNR. In the South Pacific in February.

Joseph F. O'Reilly, 1941, Captain, AAF. Missing over Germany, March 18.

Thomas von Holzhausen, 1944, Lt. AAF. Missing February 21 over Europe. Recipient of the Air Medal for previous sorties over enemy territory.

Patrick J. King, 1944, Sgt. AAC. Missing since March over Europe. Presumed to be a prisoner of war.

John T. Gunn, 1944, Corp. U.S.M.C. Missing since April 21 somewhere in the South Pacific.

PRISONER OF WAR

John V. Forkin, 1946, Private, Army. European theater.

HONORS

Joseph P. Lynch, 1943, Captain, USMC. Air Medal for services in South Pacific. Now an instructor at Jacksonville, Florida.

George A. Lyons, 1939, Lt., USNR. 1. Your excellent performance of duty as Commanding Officer of U.S.S. LCI (L) 40, during the amphibious assault on Italy merits special commendation.

2. Acting as an assault wave leader, you directed the attacking ships under your command with such skill and effectiveness that the embarked troops were landed promptly and expeditiously on the heavily defended enemy beaches with minimum loss. Having accomplished the initial landings, and, having successfully retracted your ship from the landing point, you voluntarily went to the assistance of another ship which was unable to withdraw from the beach unaided and which was being subjected to severe enemy fire. You are hereby, commended for your courage, initiative and devotion to duty."

John E. Corcoran, 1945, Staff Sgt., AAF. Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with three Oak Leaf clusters.

Joseph P. Travers, Intown, 1941, Lt., AAF. Cited for bravery in the Solomon Islands.

Robert W. Attridge, 1942, Lt., USMC. Silver Star Medal for "conspicuous bravery and intrepidity in action as a member of a reconnaissance patrol on an enemy held island in the South Pacific Area during the latter part of December, 1943." Although without the advantage of advance information either as to the strength of the enemy forces on the island or as to the attitude of the natives, lieutenant Attridge, and the other members of the party went ashore in the face of certain danger and with limited means of escape in the event of an encounter with a superior enemy force. In an exceedingly brief space of time, the information which the party had been sent to obtain was secured. The presence of the party was discovered by the Japanese and a patrol was sent out by the enemy. Although possessing inferior arms, the party ambushed the enemy, killing three, wounding one, and putting the remainder to flight. The party then returned to their boat, and battled their way through heavy seas, with three members of the party sick or exhausted, to their rendezvous with the vessel transporting them. The mission, requiring the utmost skill, intelligence and resourcefulness, was accomplished with complete success, and Lieutenant Attridge's performance of duty throughout was in keeping with the highest tradition of the United States Naval Service.

Byron V. Leary, 1938, Major, USMC. Legion of Merit award.

Nicholas P. Flynn, 1943, Ensign, USNR. Commendation for performance of duty during the invasion of Italy in 1943.

Walter C. Ryan, 1936, Ensign, USNR. Purple Heart for wounds received while in action in the South Pacific in 1943.

Edward V. Walsh, 1943, Lt., AAF. Citation for meritorious service with the India-China wing of the AAF.

Joseph J. Welsh, Intown, 1942, Lt., Army. Purple Heart awarded posthumously. He was killed in action January 8 at Bougainville.

Arthur R. Tyrrell, Intown, Staff Sgt., AAF. Winner of Air Medal and three Oak Leaf clusters for shooting down two Nazi planes and for successive groups of raids over enemy territory.

Edward Bourgeault, 1941, Lt. (j.g.) USNR. Distinguished Flying Cross for protecting a convoy in the North African Area.

Somewhere in the Pacific—(Delayed)—Marine Second Lieutenant John F. Roake, of 6 "O" Street, South Boston, Mass., refuses to discuss his part in the Marshall Islands operations, in which he was wounded, but he is full of praise for the men of his command.

About wounds he sustained for which he received the Purple Heart Medal here today, he will not elaborate.

"The Japs were throwing grenades—one had my number on it," he says. But about the part his men took he will talk for hours.

"What did I do?," he echoed the question. "I watched the Japs stupidly trying to force my boys back from their positions. It just couldn't be done. Those boys were wonderful!"

He referred to a futile Jap counter attack on Marine Positions on Parry Island, Eniwetok Atoll, in the Marshall Islands.

Second Lieutenant Roake is the son of United States Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Arthur I. Roake. He attended Boston Latin High School and was graduated from Boston College in 1941 with an A.B. degree and was employed by the Pratt-Whitney Aircraft Corporation in Hartford, Conn., prior to enlistment January 4, 1943.

Austin T. McNamara, 1942, Ensign USNR. Cited for bravery during the invasion of the southeastern coast of Sicily last year.

"Participating as junior division officer of the second division by his tireless performance of duty in the absence of his division officer who had been assigned to salvage duty, by his resourceful leadership, his initiative and his enthusiasm, resulting in the successful debarkation of troops and discharging of cargo from his station in rough weather without injury or loss and that it constituted exceptionally meritorious conduct and the performance of outstanding service which contributed in a large measure to the successful accomplishment of the mission of the ship."

Edward A. Walsh, 1941, Captain, USMC. Air Medal for "daring airmanship" in the Solomons war theater, April 7, 1943. He also has the Purple Heart.

John T. O'Neill, 1938, Captain, USMC. Silver Star Medal and Purple Heart for bravery in the battle of Tarawa.

William R. Golden, 1939, Private, Army. Purple Heart, wounded at Guadalcanal.

Paul T. Heffron, 1942, Sgt. AAF. Distinguished Flying Cross for "outstanding courage, ability and devotion to duty" in the Southwest Pacific.

Edward J. Moore, 1941, Captain, USMC. Purple Heart at Guadalcanal in 1942.

Martin F. Barrett, 1941, Captain, USMC. Silver Star for "conspicuous gallantry in action" at Tarawa, November 20, 1943.

John W. Ahearn, Intown, 1939, Lt., Army. Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with five Oak Leaf clusters. He is stationed in England.

Peter A. Caulfield, 1943, Lt., AAF. Air Medal and Oak Leaf Cluster for services over enemy occupied Europe.

John J. Hurley, Jr., February Freshman, 1943, Private, Army. Purple Heart, Southwest Pacific.

John F. Roake, 1941, Lt., USMC. Purple Heart. Wounded during Marshall Islands operations.

William J. Lane, 1944, Purple Heart. Injured during a Jap dive bombing attack in South Pacific Area.

George R. O'Sullivan, 1943, Lt., AAF. Distinguished Flying Cross for bravery, and the Air Medal plus three Oak Leaf clusters. Lt. O'Sullivan was formerly a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Francis G. Crosby, 1945, Navy. Presidential Citation for saving an officer on the U.S.S. Borie when it went down in the North Atlantic last October.

Francis J. Daley, 1941, Captain, A.A.F. Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" with the American Air Force in the Southwest Pacific.

FACULTY

 Rev. James F. Geary, S. J., has become a chaplain in the Army.

1891

Dr. J. J. Egan of Gloucester died in January. A letter from his son said in part, "Boston College was always close to his heart and in his prayers and he took great pride in being an alumnus."

1894

Jim Dorsey's two boys are captains in the Army.

1905

Charles McCarthy has been seriously ill since June, 1940.

1911

Leo P. Noonan is an Assemblyman in the State of New York.

1912

In March was announced the engagement of Miss Edith Dooley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Dooley to Lt. William A. Johnson.

JOHN S. KEOHANE
12 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill

 Our Reverend Class President Father Eric MacKenzie advises that "we are the THIRTY YEAR CLASS for this year's Alumni Day, Monday June 12th. Naturally we should plan to show up in force and let the rest of the world know that there is life in the old boys yet despite our greying locks or lack of them, and the burdens of our high positions. Details will be sent later regarding this and also the party after the post-prandial exercises held you-know-where, but this is only a preliminary suggestion that you mark June 12 on your calendar and reserve it safely against other engagements!"

Congratulations and best wishes to the following Silver Jubilarians of the Class: Msgr. Bob Barry of Somerville; Fathers Pat Dawson of Sharon, Fred Deasy of Hopkinton, Tom Devlin of West Bridgewater, Bill Desmond of East Lexington, Frank Doyle of Greenwood, Pot Floherty of Monponsett. We rejoice in the recovery from a serious illness of Ed Cogan, who has returned to the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Ed Sullivan was the orator of the day at the recent Exemplification of the Fourth Degree by the Bishop Cheverus Assembly in Boston.

We encountered beaming Dan Young recently, who is one of the shining legal lights of the O.P.A. staff.

At a meeting of the Canon Law Society of America held at the Hotel Biltmore in N. Y., May 10th, the speaker was our President Father Eric Mackenzie who spoke on "Marriage Legislation."

Regarding the Bill O'Sullivan family, Bill, Jr. has been home on a furlough and will report to Fort Knox, Ky., for Army radio work; Francis X., USNR is in boat training at Fort Sampson, N. Y. and John J. has been transferred from Manhattan College to the 69th Infantry at Camp Shelby, Missouri.

We regret to hear of the illness of Father Dave Twomey, O. S. B. the efficient Dean of Discipline at St. Anselm's. We hope for him a rapid recovery.

Thomas Swan Keohane has been transferred to the 5th Division of the Marines at Camp Pendleton, California.

PHILIP J. BOND
18 Houston Street, West Roxbury

 Robert J. Burns' son, William, is officially reported a prisoner of the Germans. A U.S.A.A.F. sergeant, gunner and radioman, William was shot down over Berlin during the January 11 raid. Shortly after, he was officially reported missing. No further word came until January 30, when the Flyer's voice broadcast from a short-wave Berlin radio was picked up by listeners in this country. The Burns Family received letters from 30 people all over the country reporting William well and unhurt. Two weeks later official word from the government was received reporting him a prisoner. Just before the raid he had been awarded the Air Medal. Bob's other flying son, Thomas, also a sergeant in the U.S.A.A.F. is home from England after completing 26 missions over Europe. He wears the following decorations: the Air Medal with three oak leaf clusters, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Presidential Citation and the Bronze Star. All up for the Burns Family.

Thomas E. G. Cotter's son, Thomas Jr., is still in England, a captain in the Armored Force, Artillery Command, awaiting D-Day.

William R. Duffey's book "Public Speaking" written in collaboration with his brother, Frank, is steadily gaining in popularity. Bill is professor of Speech in Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

James M. Linnehan's son, James, Jr., is now in Jacksonville after completing the V-12 program at Tufts College. He is awaiting assignment to the Naval Air Force.

John A. Lahive is completing his twenty-eighth year as a teacher of English in Hyde Park High School. John has five children — 2 boys and three girls; the older boy in his third year at B.C. High.

James H. Mullins is now a teacher in Hyde Park High School. Jimmie taught many years in the High School of Commerce before his transfer. His specialty is English. He still commutes from Brockton, a suburb of Montello.

Father Richard A. Rogers, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Forest Hills, celebrated his 25th year Jubilee Mass on May 9.

John J. Walsh's son, John, Jr., is a first lieutenant in the Army Air Force stationed at Patterson Field, Fairfield, Ohio.

Those who read the children's page in the "Pilot" might have read two poems by George Hennessy's little daughter in recent issues: "Our Lady's Shrine", and "Mother's Day". The talent comes from the mother, Helen Conway, who is a gifted poetess.

Three home-front casualties now well on the road to recovery: Andrew L. Wessling (working too hard); Robert J. Burns (just plain worry) and George S. Hennessy (broken bones in wrist).

JAMES L. O'BRIEN
41 Pondred Circle, Jamaica Plain

 Last month I had a very nice letter from Fr. Gerald Fitzgerald. His address is Chaplain G. Fitzgerald, 0527415, S.P.R.C., Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

I lost track of "Costello," Frank Keefe to strangers, but the F.B.I. located him for me. He's now living at 832 Rittenhouse St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

The class wishes to extend its sympathy to Fr. "Tom" McLaughlin on the loss of his sister and to Mrs. Joseph Hurley on the death of her only daughter.

Frank Roche has just been elected Commander of the Hoyt Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Arthur Gormley spends most of his time in Des Moines but he was quite responsive to Father Rector's War Fund.

Dr. Paul Bruning's mother is quite ill. Remember her in your prayers.

Fr. William Daly did a fine job in the Parochial Spelling Bee.

We regret to report the death of Very Rev. James M. Grimes in Brooklyn, New York, February 22.

Our Retreat was held at Campion Hall on May 5, 6 and 7. That's one affair that you would not want to miss.

THOMAS D. CRAVEN
42 Mellen Street, Dorchester

Fr. Tony Lavery, Der Fuehrer of the class, has lived up to his usual enthusiasm in the War Fund Campaign for the college. The members of the class have received almost fortnightly reports of the Fund's progress and reminders to "come across". In the course of his work for the college he has sent out over 1200 letters on his own account. The result is that 1917 has made a showing that we are all proud of. When certain pledges are completed the class will be away out in front. Thanks Tony, you are doing a wonderful piece of work. The college is fortunate to have an alumnus with your spirit.

Dyker Hoefling some years ago presented us with the class baby, Rita. Word has been received from Buffalo that Rita, now Mrs. Callahan, has presented the class with the first grandchild, an 8½ pound girl. We are still waiting for the cigars, Dyker. Our congratulations, Rita.

Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D.D. administrator of the Archdiocese since the death of His Eminence, Cardinal O'Connell, has recently published a booklet, "The Missions in War and Peace" in which is described the effects of the war on the missions in the Pacific area, China, Eskimo Land, Africa, as well as the home missions. The very interesting letter of Fr. Brock, S.J., which enclosed a check for money contributed by the officers and men of the 182nd Inf. for the restoration of the missions in the Solomons, is included.

Father Joe Keenan, Chaplain on the U.S.S. G. O. Squier operating in the Pacific, disposed of a lot of letter writing to his many friends by writing an eight page mimeograph in which each one to whom a reply was due received an individual paragraph. A very unique method of handling your fan mail, Joe.

Father Bob Sheridan, S. J., Chaplain in Charlestown, S. C. reports that things are quiet just now, but he expects to be on the move soon.

Father Jim Kerrigan, O.M.I. informs us from the Office of the Provincial in Buffalo that he has been made Director of Missions for the First American Province. We hope that the office routine will not keep this outstanding mission orator from our local pulpits.

Dr. Cy Lydon who was not well during the winter has resumed full practice, but must take it easy.

Ralph Quinn who is now head of the history department at English High School has completed his three years as head of the Roslindale Evening High School.

Our sympathy is extended to Phil Dwyer upon the death of his wife. Both Phil and his wife were struck by a taxi. Four weeks later Mrs. Dwyer passed away. Mrs. Dwyer was active in the community life in Medford and was for eight years a member of the school committee. Mrs. Dwyer was formerly Ann Guyton.

Tim O'Sullivan and George Murray who have been among our missing brethren for several years have been located. The former is in Detroit, the latter is in Stamford, Conn.

1918

JOHN M. O'LOUGHLIN
631 Fellsway, Medford

The first Boston College captain in the Navy, Clarence Pike, recently sent in his contribution to the War Fund. Mrs. Shea has also sent in a contribution in memory of her husband, Commander Shea.

John Canavan and Bill Cashin, both officers of the Alumni Association, urge all 1918 men to support Boston College in the present critical situation.

FRANCIS J. ROLAND
11 Beacon Street, Boston

The Jubilee Retreat will be held at Campion Hall, North Andover from June 9 to 11 and it is hoped that as many of the members of the Class as possible will arrange to attend this gathering. Father Francis Low, S.J., will conduct the exercises. Those of us who have heard Father Low, either in spiritual exercises or on the public platform, feel certain that a most instructive and interesting series of conferences awaits us. A few of the members of the Class have declared their intention of arriving at North Andover a day before the scheduled retreat. Others have stated that they should like to remain over until June 12th, Alumni Day, in order to go to the Heights directly from Campion Hall. Either arrangement will be perfectly satisfactory to Father McGrory. Will those who have not already notified Frank Roland of their intention to attend this Retreat kindly do so at once if they expect to be present as arrangements for accommodations must be made in advance? Members of other classes especially of Anniversary Classes, are cordially invited to join 1919.

The Class will gather for Alumni Day exercises as near 4 P.M. as possible in the Administration Building, and will proceed to Alumni Field for a scheduled soft ball game with the members of the Class of 1924.

Will see you on June 9, and June 12.

Here jack:

spring is here and as that is the time of year that things come up, we'd like to have the boys in the class who have not as yet come up with their donation to the War Fund come across as soon as possible and we'd also like the gang to know that when they received our letter, we had left off the name of one of the hardest working fellows on the committee, pop pync, and with that taken care of, we understand that the rationing of meat was discontinued just in time to eliminate the necessity of the class members eating chicken at the testimonial banquet to judge elias shamon, which was held may 21, at one of the downtown hotels and that was just as well anyway because there are no chickens left in 1920 by now and if you question that, just consider our bill dempsey, who calls the roll at the malden homestead and when billy, jr is home on furlough from the air corps and paul is home from st. clements, seven dempseys, billy, paul, joan, jimmy, mary, jackie and anne marie answer "here" and speaking of answering etc. have you heard about leo oicardi having to salute his daughter, helen, who has been in the waves and with a notification that gene mc-abe is attorney for aetna insurance and gus horgan a major out at mountain park, idaho and that we talked with father dan flynn and frank earls and joe orgy and they are all going to be at the next reunion of the forty thieves and the class committee members john clark, tom gately, eddie higgins, gerry cleary, frank dillon, gerry kellaheer, father russ haley, father john lane, tom scanlan, john mcmorrow, bob oconnell, bill pashby, elias shamon, pop pync, joe white, paul troy and jack sheehan are prepared to accept your donation at any time for the War Fund, we'll close with the friendly hope that that spring which we started off this note by mentioning, has you in its grippe

i thank you

GORDON F. IRONS

9 Emmonsdale Road, West Roxbury

 Father Walter Furlong was an Assistant Master of Ceremonies at the Mass for Cardinal O'Connell.

The Sunday Herald, May 5, contained a very fine picture of John Burns and his family. Congratulations, John, and Mrs. Burns.

Mark Linehan is a naval investigator for the National Fireworks Co., West Hanover, Mass.

Arthur McCarthy is a member of a prominent law firm in Philadelphia.

Ed Prendergast is in Iceland at a Navy outpost.

Maj. Harold W. Sullivan, U. S. Army, is stationed at Orlando, Fla.

The sympathy of the class is extended to Father Furlong who lost a beloved aunt recently.

Jimmy Cox is helping the government at Raytheon.

Father James Mulloy, C.P., is at St. Gabriel's Monastery. We are glad he has recovered from a recent illness.

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS

15 Kirk Street, West Roxbury

 As far as I know the first member of '22 to have a boy at Boston College is Lt. Col. Timothy McInerney, whose son George is a member of the Freshman Class. May our sons come along in rotation now! Tim is temporarily home from his assignment in England. . . Rev. Edward Sullivan, S.J., BCH '18, formerly Prefect of Discipline at James Street, is now a member of the mission band at Manressa, N. Y. . . Eugene Fanning is doing a splendid work for the youth of the state by conducting an excellent course in automobile driving for the high school population. Courses of this type should pay real dividends in the years to come. . . Twenty-two members of the class of '22 have guaranteed, sponsored, or subscribed to "Athletics at BC", the best showing made by any class. The latest guarantor was Charley Doley, now of Delaware. . . Lt. Frank X. Doley is at Ann Arbor preparing for more foreign service. . . John Cody is doing an outstanding coaching job at Lynn English High. . . It's now Captain

Ralph Shea of the Quartermaster's Corps. Ralph's promotion is a joy to all of us. . . he's one of the best. . . Among the BCH '18 chaplains are Rev. William Duffy, S.J., and Rev. Daniel O'Connor, S.J. Lt. Duffy is in the Army and Lt. O'Connor is with the Navy in the South Pacific. . . I had an interesting letter from Arthur C. Cusick (not C. Arthur Cusick), the famous tackle of Frank Morrissey's great war team of 1918. Arthur, father of four fine sons, was one of BC's stellar linemen. He is living in Pittsburgh and is doing well in the steel business. . . Another member of that team, Jim Crowley, of '20 wrote from Spartanburg, S.C. His son, now in the service, graduated from Notre Dame last June. . . The entire class was sad to learn of the death of John Furlong on April 10 of bronchial pneumonia. Gassed in World War I, John has had a very difficult life and only his innate cheerfulness made his life happy. His mother passed away only two weeks before John, making his passing a double sadness to his family.

FRANCIS L. FORD

26 Ellison Avenue, Dorchester

 Fifteen members of the class gathered at the Heights to keep unbroken the traditional Communion Laetare Sunday Breakfast on March 19. The Reverend Father Low, S.J. celebrated the Mass in the Chapel, but unfortunately was unable to join us at the Kenmore Hotel for breakfast. We adjourned to the Marine Room where we held the usual election of officers and returned the usual slate. We also made plans for assisting the college in its wartime crisis.

Among those present were Len Morrissey, Jim Reardon, Tony Comerford, Gerry Coughlin, Joe Comber, Cecia McGoldrick, Ed. Garrity, John Keyes, Gitch Gormley, John O'Donnell, Con. O'Connell, Walter Dimmock, George Olesen, Joe Crane, and fourth-term Frank Ford. It was a happy and pleasant get-together with most of the fun concentrated on our efforts to have Sailor Johnny Keyes salute Lieutenant Jim Reardon of the U.S. N.R. The result will be reported at our next gathering.

While speaking of the Laetare gathering, take it from me that I believe in mental telepathy. A letter from Lieutenant Owen A. Gallagher, Navy, somewhere in the South Pacific, called me shots perfectly. He said that he was in attendance and to prove it he mentioned practically everyone who was there. It was most uncanny the way he hit the nail on the head.

and more about our annual Laetare Sunday. This letter from Sgt. Francis J. Dailey, "Somewhere in Italy":

"Sure enjoyed reading the Alumni News, Feb. issue, which the folks forwarded to me. Along with learning of Pat Colman's prowess, I was glad to see the class is well represented in the war effort.

You spoke of Laetare Sunday. You may be interested to know that two more of us remembered: Leo Desmond, who is a captain in the Army Medical Corps in the New Hebrides, and yours truly who attended Mass and received communion in a Jesuit Church somewhere in Italy this Laetare Sunday in 1944. My thoughts strayed back to those other days and that talk of Father Dore's on the occasion of the first one.

I have been on foreign service for over thirteen months in the North African and Italian sectors, and Leo moved right off after coming in. He's been out there for about five months. You know how close we two were. I was in hopes we'd see each other when I knew he was coming, and here we are half way round the world from each other.

[Till we meet again beneath the pavers, Frank, my best to yourself and any of the boys you run across." This P.S. is mine. Captain and Dr. Leo Desmond is still in the New Hebrides. We remembered and talked about him at our breakfast. Dr. Leo has lost 40 pounds on his new assignment, and keeps in constant touch with the folks at home.

A message from the West Coast: Pete Monahan is now Credit Manager for the Commercial Credit Corporation of San Francisco, Calif. Pete is residing at 2 Richmond Rd., San Anselmo, Calif. He is also associated with the Philosophical Association of the University of San Francisco which under the direction of the Rev. Charles Dullea, S.J., a relation of our own Ed. Dullea.

and while we are talking of the Dullea's, let's congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dullea on the arrival of a baby daughter recently.

Harry Coughlin played the part of John Boyle O'Reilly, Irish-American journalist and poet, at the Clover Club presentation commemorating the 100th anniversary of the beloved poet's birth, at their recent gathering. T. Edmund Garrity is chairman of the class to help Alma Mater survive the present war crisis. He is being assisted by Walter Dimmock, Gerald Coughlin, and your president. Letters have been sent to all members of 1923 in the hope that more classmates will be heard from. Father Rector has expressed the desire that the Alumni will be the bulwark in the present emergency. Your name and donation, suitable to your means, is all he asks "For Boston" should be more than the words of a "proud refrain", for the Boston College of the future — the Alumni's worthy aim.

Dr. Bart Hogan is in charge of the Naval Hospital at Annapolis, Md. Salute of the year — to Captain Lawrence Joseph McCarthy, "Larry" and Doctor to us, for his attainment in the Navy. A splendid tribute to his ability. Very few in our knowledge have made his grade. Best of Luck, Lorry, on the high seas.

ANTHONY E. LE BLANC
45 Maynard Street, Arlington

 Our Communion Breakfast was held April 16, at the Hotel Sheraton. At the Mass preceding it, Father George Dowd was the celebrant. Among those speaking were Edmund Murphy, Lieut. Commander Edmund Barry and Francis Kelly, Superintendent of Schools in Watertown. Doing the honors at the piano was Lieut. 'Les' Hourigan of the Navy.

The condolences of the class are extended to the family of John Keefe of Lowell who died in May.

Met Joe Machado recently. He is in the ship supplies game.

Father Francis X. Bransfield is at Fort Jackson, S.C.

ALL OUT FOR ALUMNI DAY, JUNE 12. 20 YEARS OUT!

1925

WILLIAM ARTHUR REILLY
14 Arborway, Jamaica Plain

 Although our contributions to the Boston College War Fund have not totalled in dollars as much as some of the other classes in our age group, the number of contributors has been larger than for most of the other classes. Thus, at least, "the spirit is willing."

Prominent in delegations at the funeral of His Eminence, Cardinal O'Connell, were observed, Eugene Giroux, in the delegation from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; Daniel A. Lynch and William J. Doyle, representing other organizations. Rev. Arthur Riley was train-bearer for the Most Reverend Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Ciconani.

Classmates in the service at the present time include, Doctors Bateman and Barrett, Fathers DeCoursey and Gearan, Messrs. Ahearn, Bride, Cotty, Donahue, Gavan, Julian, Leary, Manning, J. A. Murphy, McCrehan, J. P. Maloney, O'Rourke, Quilty, J. M. Walsh, H. M. Ward, Ex-members: Reverends W. Collins, J. F. McCarthy, and Richard Hawko; Messrs. Ewing, Maloney, Ryan and McNeill.

The sympathy of the Class is extended to Father Riley of St. John's Seminary, whose brother, listed as "missing in action" for several months, was finally officially reported as "killed in action".

Frank Flanagan, violinist, now of Brooklyn, N. Y., was heard again in Boston in a recital during the month of May.

A letter from Dr. George Donovan, President of Webster College, Mo., indicates that he is still energetic and active in his administration work.

Frank Elbury, a permanent resident at Second Cliff, Scituate, extends an invitation to our Classmates to visit him down that way during the Summer months.

Joe Beattie continues as one of the leading social workers in Detroit. His address is 3360 Charvoix Street, for the benefit of visitors to that community.

Bernard Hawley, Secretary to the Editor of Hearst's Cosmopolitan Magazine, can be located at 57th street and 8th Avenue by New Yorkers.

When in Chicago look up our former "goalie" Jack Fitzgerald, former Dean of Loyola Law School, whose residence is listed at 28 North Franklin Street; or Bill O'Brien, Sales Manager for a prominent electric company, whose address is 482 Northworth Avenue, Elgin, Ill.

John A. Murphy is a lieutenant commander at 90 Church St., New York. Captain Jim Bride is at Camp Polk, La.

WILLIAM J. CUNNINGHAM

40 Tennyson Street, West Roxbury

Met Greg Ludovic recently. He tells me that his brother, Lt. (s.g.) Paul Ludovic has returned from Italy and is stationed in Florida.

Ed McDewitt's first child was born recently, a boy. Dr. Arthur Gorman helped the stork.

Tom Herlihy has been promoted to commander, and is on the staff of the Commander of the 12th fleet.

Major Robertie is stationed at Natal. The fine report sent out in May by John Dooley shows that the Insurance Fund amounts to $6,800. John will have complete charge of the Fund in the future. Send in the $5.00 premium for the current payment.

FRANCIS X. SULLIVAN

51 Presentation Road, Brighton

Private William Gillin is in Great Britain serving as a public relations assistant with the Ninth Air Force Service Command.

In April Private Lawrence Luddy was at Camp Ellis, Illinois.

John J. Costello is in the Army. In March he was seen on duty as an M.P. at the North Station.

Ernest Collyer in March was at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin.

Leo Keefe is now a colonel in the South Pacific.

Richard P. Kelley broke his hip in 1936 and since then has been confined to a wheel chair. He is at the Holy Ghost Hospital in Cambridge.

John Higgins has been elected a member of the board of directors of the Massachusetts Teachers' Federation. He is teaching in Hingham.

Genial Joe O'Brien is personnel director of Northeast Airlines. He is a good fellow to know if you have to get out of town in a hurry.

Jack Buckley is still busy building up his family and Hyde Park High. He is receiving cigars on the occasion of the birth of his sixth child. Jack was also the author of a most successful skit at the Teachers' Economic Association banquet. It was entitled, "Surveying The Survey."

Cornelius "Tubber" Cronin is in town recently from Great Lakes Training Station, where he is a lieutenant (s.g.). He expects sailing orders any day.

Rev. John Devlin, S.J., has left Holy Cross to enter the Army.

Rev. Joseph P. McCall is acting pastor (at this writing) at St. Joseph's Church, Belmont. Fr. Haney, the pastor, died recently.

Ed Richardson has gone to New York as a commercial radio announcer.

LLOYD L. DOYLE

279 Bowdoin Street, Dorchester

Lt. John Kelley was at the Iowa Pre-Flight School in March.

Lt. Commander Joseph Doyle left the Chelsea Naval Hospital in March for sea duty.

Private Pat Tompkins enlisted in the Army in April and is at Camp Upton, N. Y. His wife and children are in Syracuse.

Lt. John E. O'Loughlin, AC, has been transferred to Maxwell Field, Alabama.

1929

JOHN J. SPENCER

24 Cerdan Avenue, Roslindale, Mass.

John Joseph Benedict Barnwell, of the Beacon Hill Barnwells, has added another half stripe to the sleeve of his naval uniform and is now a lieutenant-commander. He is assigned to the Norfolk Air Base.

Dr. Frank McNamara, who was unintentionally demoted in this column in the last issue is a lieutenant, not lieut. (j.g.). He is doing general surgery in a base hospital in England.

Harry Kievenaar is conducting a West Roxbury-Roslindale drive for the War Fund. House-to-house visits are to be made to the nearly 250 alumni living in the section. Classmates assisting are Eddie Lee, Ed (Pat) Murphy and Paul Markey. Results thus far are good.

Vin Roberts occasionally slips away to Cape Cod for sea bass fishing. Still an ardent golfer, his preference is now for rod and reel.

The sympathy of the class is extended to long-time class president Gene McLaughlin on the loss of his sister. John (Jerry) Mahoney's anticipated departure for the Marine Corps, which had accepted him, has been delayed by the new Selective Service regulations.

Dr. Bill Flynn and yours truly were delighted during May to receive a visit from Lieutenant Kevin Hern, '31, home on an unexpected furlough following his transfer from the battleship California, on which he commanded a 14-inch gun turret, to another battleship.

Clem Derby is now attached to the State Selective Service Board at its Chauncy street offices, and is available to classmates seeking information on the provisions of the act.

Bernie Kilroy hasn't changed much since he centered the Eastern Championship line in 1928. Those lively youngsters must keep him young.

Lieut. Vitalis Kundzicz, USNR, was married a short time ago in Washington to Miss Edna G. Zawalich of Dorchester. Vitalis received his commission in December, 1942, upon completion of a naval officers' training course at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

Lt. John Parrell is at Maxwell Field, Alabama.

Lt. Allen J. McCarthy, M.C., is at the Station Hospital, Camp Reynolds, Greenville, Pa.

1930

One of our former classmates heard from in the War Fund drive is Fr. John McDewitt who has been stationed for nine years at St. James Rectory in Haverhill.

John Redmond Hoban is in the Navy stationed at Port Huene, California. Ed Lennon, Jack Dunn and John Callahan are in the service.

Among those at the Jackson Day Dinner in March at the Copley Plaza was John Hurley.

Captain Lawrence Mullen, MC, is in England.

Private John M. Dwyer is overseas in a Tank Destroyer Battalion with a New York A.P.O.

Parley Payson is a chemist working in East Boston.

Frank Tallino has had his problems in the restaurant business. He was getting ready to close up to enter the service in March.

Our sympathy is extended to Fr. Charlie Donovan on the death of his mother in February. Charlie is recently back to studies at Weston after six weeks as first assistant curate at St. Kieran's Church in Berlin, N. H. Rumor has it that the parish is only beginning to recover from a series of revolutionary innovations.

The Class Committee, presently consisting of Roy Callen, Bill Ryan member pro-tem, and your faithful reporter, wants to extend the thanks of the Class to Fred Gorman, Ken Kelley, Justin McCarthy, Tim Sullivan, and "Bucky" Warren for their generous help in getting out the recent War Fund letter. Incidentally, the occasion was one of great hilarity featured by vitriolic exchanges between "Pegler" Warren and "AFL" Kelley. The "public" members of the group voted the contest a draw. Bill Ryan received a fine letter from Lt. Joe Roddy recently. He mentions several B.C. men somewhere in the Pacific stating that "New Years we all got together along with four more Massachusetts boys whom we made honorable B.C. alumni and just raised the tents with "Sweep Down The Field and For Boston". The whole camp became B.C. conscious."

Richard O'Halloran is a lieutenant (j.g.) with the Navy somewhere in the South Pacific.

Vin De Benedictis has been at Camp Reynolds, Pa.

Lt. Edward F. Kenney, USNR, and Miss Agnes M. Mullen of Lowell were married around April at Charleston, S. C.

Lt. Arthur A. Blaisdell, AAF, is engaged to Miss Catherine R. Reddish of Roslindale. He served four months in Cuba and is now overseas.

Jim Malone has been promoted to captain in the Marine Corps in New Britain. He was in the first wave which landed on Cope Gloucester in December.

The Alumni Office heard recently from Lt. Brian Sullivan who is in Italy. He has met Vin Lyness, '41.

1943

GEORGE E. MCKINNON

44 Boutwell Street, Dorchester

 We ran into Dick Buck at the Touraine the other night. Dick is with the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Ensigns Dick Schoenfeld, Henry Ducey, and Joe Turk have completed their course at Harvard and are heading for the West Coast and the Pacific.

We received a letter from Corporal Jim Sweeney written in a dugout on the Italian front. Jim is in an anti-aircraft division.

Ed Myers, home recently on furlough, is now at Columbia's Midshipmen's School as is Fran Harvey.

Ernie Santusuosso is stationed in New Guinea with nothing to do for recreation but sit through movies in the continuous downpour.

Pvts. Hank Trainor and Hector Alexander met at Mass "somewhere in England" for a brief but exciting reunion according to their V-mails. Hank has become an addict of tea at 4.

We met Bob Lunny at the Merry-Go-Round the other evening. Bob has received a medical discharge from the Navy and plans to go into teaching.

Ensign Bill Murphy, when last heard from was on duty in Kodiak, Alaska. Heading for the South Pacific for aviation rescue party in Ensign Bill Hill.

Lt. Maurice Lynch was married recently to Miss Ruth Cushing of Roslindale. Maurice is in the Air Corps stationed as Presque Isle, Me.

Aviation Cadet George Criss is now studying at the University of Pittsburgh. Lt. Tom Conlon of the Airforce is engaged to Miss Dorothy McElhiney of Dorchester.

Corporal Walter Cassell, recently married to Miss Kathleen Ronco of West Roxbury and Emmanuel, with Tom Antico and yours truly as ushers, is now headed for duty in the Pacific theatre.

Bumped into John Gortland at the Statler attending the Regis Prom. John is teaching in Somerville.

Pvt. Leo Schwartz is in Pine Camp, N. Y. training Italian prisoners.

Harry Ferland is working 7 days a week in the Hingham shipyard office. Ensign Charlie Toole is the skipper of an L.S.T. and has seen action in the South Pacific.

Naval Aviation Cadets John Logue and Jack O'Hara are in training at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Black Hegarty is a naval aviation cadet stationed at Glenview, Ill.

Pvt. Ed Murphy is in the Ordnance at Camp Campbell, Ky.

Pfc. Bob O'Meara in a medical unit moving from Camp Grant, Ill. to parts unknown.

Pfc. Walter Greaney of the infantry has been stationed in Northern Ireland since last November.

DONALD J. WHITE
83 Upland Road, Quincy

Once again, B.C. is in the news at Notre Dame. On or about June 1 Larry Greene, Ed Doherty, Bill McCarthy, George McDonough, Walter Fitzgerald, Dave Hoar, Bull Dempsey, and Tom Patten will be home with their commissions as ensigns, USNR. Congratulations!

From England, Jack Elliott, '44 Class Poet, reports that B.C. is really winning the war "Over There". Among those he mentions are Handsome Al McDermott, Mike Gargan, Joe Bane and Charlie McAleer. All are ensigns and all are attached to amphibious craft awaiting "The Big Push".

Aviation Cadet John Cataldo writes an interesting note from Huntington, W. Va. where he is at Marshall College. To date, the Army has agreed with John 100%, even to sending him to well enrolled co-ed institutions. His "Big Bright Hello" further explains that of a group of 140, he was one of 51 who successfully qualified for pilot training. Nice going, John!

Jim Dowd and Theo Bernhardt are now interpreters for the Army at an Army Camp in the Carolinas. They're putting their "Foreign Area" Georgetown Army training to good use.

At Plattsburg, N. Y., Sub-Turri editor Jim O'Donnell is a naval midshipman. Expects his commission about July 1. John H. Murphy is another '44 man there.

Jim Benedetto, Ex '44, is a yeoman 2-c at Fort Schuyler, Bronx, N. Y. He has seen many familiar B.C. faces passing through the Naval Indoctrination School there.

At Greensboro, N. C. the baseball season promises to be a successful one, for Cpl. Art Brennan, Ex '44, is a first string pitcher. His last letter included a handsome photo of Art, taken with the team, which was clipped from the camp newspaper.

Ensign Tom Hazlett was home recently. His present destination is unknown.

Together with Ensigns Jack O'Keefe, Jack Lyness and Al Dickinson, Bill Haley is in the Solomons (Va.) practicing amphibious operations. By this writing he and his cohorts are probably Eng. bound in an L.S.T.

Lt. Tom Von Holzhausen, Army pilot many times decorated, is still missing in action.

B. C. '44 is well represented at St.

John's Seminary by Bob Navien and Paul Moriarty. Bob ducked in the other day, looking fat and very contented. The work is hard, but he enjoys it.

B. C.'s latest contribution to Marine Corps officer personnel is home on furlough after completing R.O.C. training at Quantico. Heard from were Paul Burns Pres. '44, Charlie Furbush, Walter Brady, "Tim" Geary, Bill Philbrick, Harry Crovo, Tom Comer, among the new leathernecks to be congratulated.

Ensign Bill Boudy is now a Navy radar specialist in California.

Joe Alves, Ex '44, is soon to be home, a Flying Lieut. of the USAAF. He is due to be commissioned May 20.

Over at Harvard, Ensign Joe Sullivan, math whiz, is specializing in radar. Oliver Bowman, Ex '44, is also a Cambridge scholar.

Joe Minihan is teaching in Boston, where he is a specialist in disciplinary cases. His pal, Jack Gallagher, is leaving shortly for the Navy.

Paul Conway, who had the misfortune to miss a commission in the Marines because of an untimely attack of pneumonia, is now back in there with the Navy. Last address was Port Sampson, N. Y. Better luck this time, Paul!

Reports have it that Frankie Pinaro, who is now at the Heights for his master's degree, is an expert on clerical science, which he is teaching in his home town. Nice going, Frankie!

Frank Fay, U.S.M.C.R., has been stationed at the Charlestown Navy ord, after a severe attack of pneumonia.

Now in the U. S. Navy are the twins of '44, Stan and Warren Regan. They have been in the New York area.

Midshipman Felix A. Sweeney is engaged to Miss Ruby Lepine of Lowell. Ensign John O'Connell was married in April to Miss Dorothy Marie O'Malley of Framingham.

Dick Collette married Miss Margaret Wall of Nashua, N.H. in April. Tom Colbert was best man.

Another wedding, that of Ensign Tom Hazlett to Miss Virginia Harding of Belmont at Norfolk, Va. in February. Bill Corkery, in March, was at Kearns Field, Utah.

Paul McCann, after going to Camp Wheeler, Georgia, has been sent to B.U. Med.

Lt. Steve Manning is at Stence Field, Moultrie, Georgia.

Bob Le Blanc has been commissioned an ensign in the Navy. He reported April 26 to Miami Beach.

Aviation Cadet Vincent Cox went in March to Fresno, California, for training.

Lt. Charles Farren, AAF, is a pilot of a plane which ferries paratroopers and is stationed in England.

BUSINESS SCHOOL

1942

CHARLES H. SAVAGE, JR.

45 Hastings Street, West Roxbury

 Correction of a note appearing at the end of this column last month which had "Joe" Dever engaged to Miss Marie K. Gaudreau of North Quincy. Frank Dever is the lucky boy. Joe was never fortunate enough to be enrolled at the Business School.

Ensign John T. Butler, USCGR, writes from Puerto Rico where he is serving as an Operations and Communications Officer where he is battling the "pleasing philosophy of Manana". "Doc" Azuola's Spanish is coming in handy to John.

Ensign James J. Barnicle, serving as an Engineering Officer, is well into his second year of active sea duty. Sorry, his Marketing Major hasn't been much help yet.

Sgt. John O'Connor disappeared from his convenient Army Base station one day and now can tell that he is located in England. A severe blow to the depleted "Ledger" staff.

Ensign John J. Gibbons is a supply officer aboard ship and overseas.

Tech Sgt. Robert M. Kenney is doing personnel work under field conditions. He has visited Scotland and was planning a visit to some of the Welch towns recently.

Pt. James M. O'Connor became a father recently. The baby boy, James Vincent O'Connor, is all set to enroll in the Class of 1966. Congratulations. We were all happy to hear that our former classmate, John McCarty completed his course and graduated recently from Boston College.

Ensign Albert T. Ferguson writes from the Pacific where he claims the fishing is good.

Lt. (j.g.) Fred M. Sliney and Lieutenant (j.g.) Frank Dever are still battling it out together in the South Pacific. They make a great combination.

The class offers congratulations to Corp. Bob Rehling, '43, who was married on April 23 to the former Elizabeth M. Crowley of Dorchester. The event took place at St. Peter's Church.

Pfc. John Fox is again with Co. K, Fort Harrison, Indiana.

Father Kelley and John J. Drummey returned recently from a conference of Business School heads held in Chicago. Congratulations also to Jim Travers (Army), who was married April 15 to Miss Mary King at St. Mary's Church, Jefferson, Mass. The couple is living in Augusta, Maine.

Corp. Henry McConville is a Meteorologist in Newfoundland.

Miss Nancy Donald (Lowell Teachers' College) is engaged to Sgt. J. Frederick Keefe.

1943

 Miss Marie Hines and Ensign Thomas O'C Murray, USNR, were married in March. Since then Tom has been stationed at Port Hueneme, California. He probably has received a new assignment by now.

Corp. Timothy J. Fitzgerald was in the Sicilian campaign in the Army Signal Corps. He is now stationed somewhere in North Africa.

Jim Harvey is in England, still managing to play a little golf.

For the records, Sam Chiucholo's name is now Samuel T. Church.

In March Corp. Ed Connor visited the Heights. He has been stationed up in Edmonton, Canada.

(Ed. Note. Since Tom Murray went to California, class news is rather meager....Please send news-items directly to the ALUMNI OFFICE.)

1944

DONALD R. MCARDLE

79 Oakland St., Brighton

 Ensign Fred Anderson is now in the Amphibious force at St. Pierce, Florida. Also in Florida are Ensign Denny Donahue, Ensign Bill Kelley and Pfc. Bob Murphy. Bob is in the Finance Dept. at Miami.

A letter received from Jack O'Kane in Italy tells of a telephone conversation with Joe Cunningham. They had a wonderful time recalling memories of B. C. Jack mentioned that Joe Kelley is in India.

Studying under the Navy Supply program at Harvard University are Ensigns Art Tisdale, John Walsh, Bob Larkin, Jack Connors, Jerry Finnerty and Jim

Russell. Congratulations to Jerry on h's recent marriage.

The class mourns the loss of one of its mates, Joe Moulton. He was killed in a plane crash in Arkansas in February. Joe was a B. C. man in every thing he did. His scholarly way and discerning mind made him a leader in many ways. The class expresses its deepest sympathy to his mother.

Ensign Jim Rooney is in Brisbane, Australia, attached to Navy Supply. Frank McManus is stationed with the Coast Guard in Boston. The latest report is that Frank expects to be married soon.

Pvt. Bill McInnis remains at M.I.T. studying meteorology. Bill expects to be commissioned soon.

Ensign Tom Joyce has left Columbia University for San Diego for further training.

Now in England are Ensigns Bill Dunn, Paul Sheehan and Pfc. George McLaughlin. George is in the Finance Dep't. Ed Duffy is also in England.

Paul Garrity was home on furlough the week of May 7. We talked for the first time in a year and a half. Paul is stationed with the Airborne Infantry Glider Transport at Camp McCall, N. C. Pvt. Roy Holland is now a teletype operator at Camp Kohler, California. Ray met "Buzzy" O'Connor out there after they both left the A.S.T.P. Also in California is Ensign Charlie Manning.

Frank Harris is now a midshipman at Northwestern. Bob Campbell is at Columbia. Dan Durant reports to Notre Dame on June 6, to start his naval training. John Lang and Jim Cotter are still seeing the business world with Haskins and Sells. The boys have been travelling quite a bit working on out of town audits.

Ensigns Bill Daly, Marty Coleman and Bob Lee are at Little Creek, Va. Ensign Ed O'Keefe has been home waiting for his L.C.I. to be completed. He expects to ship from Boston late in May.

Lts. Jim Kelleher and Ed Geary, USMCR, have been at Quantico, Va. Pvt. Jerry Kirby is now at Camp Blanding, Fla. Jerry is in the message center. Marine Lt. Ed Conroy is in the Pacific area. Tom Sennott and Warren Cox are also in the Pacific Area. Charlie Jacobs is still with Price Waterhouse, Public Accountants. The class expresses its sympathy to Jim Cotter, whose uncle
